

As reported in The Monitor,

“In an effort to address the financial challenges faced by Catholic schools and the growing cost of Catholic education Bishop David M. O’Connell, C.M. has announced a new initiative to raise $1 million for Catholic educational efforts within the diocese. As part of the initiative, no Catholic school will close in the 2011-2012 school year.”

For information on the 2011 Bishop’s Annual Appeal, visit the Diocesan website link at:

<http://www.bishopsannualappeal.com/>